LSAC Fee Waiver Application—Australia

Instructions

Australian citizens who need a fee waiver for LSAC services must seek a waiver from Melbourne Law School (even if you plan to apply to US or Canadian law schools for admission). Allow sufficient time for the law school to process and return the form to you in order to meet the applicable test registration receipt deadline. Do not register for a test or LSAT pretest materials until you know the status of your fee waiver, which can be found at LSAC.org.

To complete the fee waiver application, you will need to:

- obtain an LSAC account number by establishing an account at LSAC.org
- complete the application on the first two pages of the form completely and accurately
- attach any documentation as appropriate
- sign and date the application
- retain a copy for your records
- submit to Melbourne Law School
- check the status of your fee waiver at LSAC.org*

Note that any misrepresentation of information on the application is subject to LSAC misconduct and irregularities proceedings.

Depending on the category you apply for, you may need to submit other information to support your request for a fee waiver. Submit the completed fee waiver application and any other information directly to Melbourne Law School either by mail to Melbourne Law School Student Centre, Melbourne Law School, the University of Melbourne, Victoria 3010; or in person at the Melbourne Law School Student Centre, Mezzanine Level, Melbourne Law School, 185 Pelham Street, Carlton, Victoria.

If the law school grants your request for a fee waiver, it will cover the following LSAC services only:

- two LSAT[®]s per two-year fee waiver period
- one copy of The Official LSAT SuperPrep[®]

In the event that you are applying to US law schools and are seeking a fee waiver for the LSAC Credential Assembly ServiceSM, this application will cover, if you are eligible, one registration for the Credential Assembly Service, including a total of four LSAC Law School Reports, the LSAC Letter of Recommendation Service, and access to electronic applications for all ABA-approved law schools.

After the law school has approved your application for a fee waiver and has returned the application to you, submit the approved fee waiver application to LSAC at LSAC, 662 Penn Street, PO Box 2001, Newtown, PA 18940-0981, USA; or fax it to 0011.1.215.504.1432; or scan it and attach it as a PDF to an e-mail to AustraliaFeeWaiver@LSAC.org.

*You can track your status by going to LSAC.org/My Home/My Account Activity/LSAC Fee Waiver. Once your fee waiver status is known, you may register for LSAC services using one of the following ways:

- Online: at LSAC.org. A credit card will be required for any fees not covered by the fee waiver. All credit card payments will be charged in US dollars.
- By mail or fax: If you cannot register online, contact LSAC for a paper registration packet by e-mail at LSACinfo@LSAC.org or call 0011.1.215.968.1001. Submit the completed LSAC Registration Form 2012–2013 to LSAC at the address or fax number listed above. Include a cheque or money order (mail only) or the account number and expiration date of your credit card for the balance of any fees that are not covered by a fee waiver. Note: If you are applying to US law schools requiring LSAC's Credential Assembly Service, you must also complete Section C in the LSAC Registration Form 2012–2013.

General Guidelines for Determining Eligibility

Please note that submission of this application does not provide automatic entitlement to a fee waiver. All applications will be assessed individually.

Recognition as an Indigenous Australian

No documentation is required for this category, but your status may be verified by the University of Melbourne's Centre for Indigenous Education.

Disadvantaged Socioeconomic Circumstances

Your application will be assessed on the basis of your application and the supporting documents.
